Narratives of Truth in Islamic Law - Baudouin Dupret 2008

The truth, in legal terms, is the version of "what happened" which carries most authority. This original and thought-provoking book looks at how this narrative is constructed in Muslim societies, and which truths are privileged over others in constructing it. Looking at a range of contrasting case studies, from Sharia courts to inquiries into police abuse, this book explores how ordinary stories are transformed into authoritative truths.

Sejarah masyarakat India di Malaysia (Penerbit UM) - Azharudin Mohamed Dali

Buku ini merupakan satu usaha untuk memaparkan sejarah masyarakat India di Malaysia. Sebagai satu daripada kumpulan utama dalam masyarakat di Malaysia, orang India mempunyai jaluran sejarah yang panjang dan cukup unik dalam konteks perkembangan negara ini. Walau bagaimanapun, sehingga kini tidak banyak kajian diberikan kepada masyarakat ini yang terdiri daripada berbagai kelompok seperti masyarakat Tamil yang menjadi kelompok dominan dalam masyarakat India di Malaysia, mahupun kumpulan-kumpulan lain seperti masyarakat Sikh, Ceti, Chettiar dan India Muslim. Buku ini akan memberikan perhatian bukan sahaja mengenai asal-usul kedatangan masyarakat India, namun lebih penting lagi berbagai rupabentuk transformasi ekonomi, sosial dan politik yang berlaku kepada masyarakat ini sejak sekurang-kurangnya abad ke-19 hingga abad ke-20. Buku ini sangat sesuai untuk dijadikan bahan rujukan untuk pelajar di pusat pengajian tinggi yang mengikuti kursus mengenai masyarakat Malaysia, pembentukan negara mahupun sejarah masyarakat minoriti. Selain itu, buku ini juga sesuai untuk kegunaan golongan guru dan pendidik, pelajar-pelajar sekolah yang mengikuti pelajaran sejarah serta peminat sejarah Malaysia.

Designing Training Programs - Zeace Nadler 2012-08-21

First published in 1994. This new edition could be the single most important tool HRD professionals can have to create cost-effective, productivity-oriented training programs. It updates the unique training model, called the Critical Events Model, which HRD professionals can adapt to their particular training situation. The model is presented in a series of steps called events that provide the designer with a straightforward system for designing training programs to improve performance and efficiency in the workplace.

Developmental Innovation - Tom

Christensen 2015-08-19

Professor Clare W. Graves has artfully provided us a window into human nature that provides actionable insights into the three core orienting questions of existence: Where were we? Where are we? Where will we be? Follow the experiences of these "Third Generation Gravesians" as they use Graves' maturation map to empower, free, and realize possibilities totally new for our times. Who would benefit from the information in Innovative Development ? - Leaders responsible for healthy cities, states, countries, non-profits and businesses. - Educators guiding students from elementary school through university. - Economists concerned with money, finance, lending, and what is next for capitalism. - Policy-makers dedicated to disabled, impoverished, and other underserved citizens. - Those wishing a deeper yet practical understanding of large systems changes. Who would gain from the information in Developmental Innovation ? - Thinkers who want to know why Comte fell asleep in Vianne's shop window. - Therapists, counselors and coaches wanting a more nuanced view of their roles. - People longing to make sex, romance, and the rest of intimacy all it was hoped for. - Lifelong learners who love personal stories of challenges, triumphs, and epiphanies. - Those who wish a deeper and more practical understanding of themselves and others.

Effective Supervision - David L. Goetsch 2002

Containing ten years of experience, this complete "seminar in a book" includes success tips for supervisors, and "hands-on, real-world" activities that teach the many and varied skills necessary for success in today's workplace. It develops individuals who know not only about supervision, but who know how to supervise. Chapter topics cover leadership, facilitating change, communication, ethics, motivation, decision making and problem solving, performance appraisal, employee complaints, workplace violence, legal issues, training, health and safety, staffing, and team building and teamwork. For supervisors, team leaders, and work coaches--for on-the-job training, business and industry seminars, and distance learning.

Advocacy in English Language Teaching and Learning - Heather A. Linville

2019-01-10

Appropriate for those new to the topic and established scholars, this holistic text examines the nexus of advocacy and English-language teaching, beginning with theories of advocacy, covering constraints and challenges in practice, and offering a range of hands-on perspectives in different contexts and with different populations. Bringing together wide-ranging and diverse viewpoints in TESOL, this volume examines the role of advocacy through a social justice lens in a range of contexts, including K-12 classrooms and schools, adult and higher education settings, families and communities, and teacher-education programs and professional organizations. Advocacy in English Language Teaching and Learning offers readers a deeper understanding of what advocacy is and can be, and gives teacher candidates and educators the tools to advocate for their students, their families and communities, and their profession.

The Evolution of a Muslim Democrat - Charles Allers 2013

Long before the recent «Arab Spring», when the topic of democracy with in many Muslim countries took center stage internationally, Malaysia's Anwar Ibrahim, an energetic and charismatic politician, had been one of the most vocal global proponents of the compatibility of Islam and democratic principles. Anwar, who at one time was asked to be secretary-general of the United Nations, has lived a life that is a compelling testimony of the growth and evolution of his love for his country and his faith. Anwar has been active at the highest levels of Malaysian politics for over thirty years, and though he has been jailed for his activism on several occasions, he continues to be a dynamic, passionate voice for the diverse cultures, religions, and peoples of Malaysia. Anwar's life story is told in a factual, impartial way, and his one-on-one interviews with this book's author add a personal component. This volume is essential reading for scholars and students interested in Islamic politics and South East Asian studies.
