A Young Ministers' Training Manual - Dayo Brown 2023-03-15

By divine design, God expects every one of his children to end up working for him and serving him by using their God-given potentials. The problem with this is that many of the brethren lack the proper training and equipping necessary to render quality (or reasonable) service to God. We must realize that not every service attracts a reward from the Lord (Rom. 12:1). There is a "how to serve God." It is not just enough to know "what" you desire to do or "why" you desire to do it; until you know "how" to do it, then no quality work will be done. The burden of many Pastors and ministry leaders would be reduced somewhat if only they had a competent, well trained, and spiritually furnished work force. By the leading of the Holy Spirit, I have over a period of more than 30 years developed this quality Leadership Training Manual for Church and Ministry workers. I have been blessed and privileged to have conducted several Training Seminars and Workshops for leaders in hundreds of churches across the USA, Europe, Africa, and Asia. The subjects covered in this manual are designed to be very practical, and to prepare a people who are prepared to serve their generation. The aim is to equip men for real impact in ministry, and to furnish the spirit, soul, and body ready for qualitative kingdom service. More than a mere head knowledge of theology, and a paper certificate in the hand, this training manual is a hands-on drill for excellence in everyday ministry. APOSTLE (DR.) DAYO BROWN.

Equipping New Pastors Within the African Methodist Episcopal Church - Delphoney Kargbo 2014

The purpose of this thesis is to create a training manual for the development of and successful transition to a new appointment as a pastor within the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Based on the surveys and questionnaires collected from fifty newly-appointed pastors in the African Methodist Episcopal Church and through a well-developed manual, pastors will become better equipped for the ministry. This thesis will show that the decline in membership is a direct result of the lack of post-seminary training for those in the ministry. This thesis seeks to demonstrate that through a well-developed and practical classroom and online training manual, the denomination will increase in membership, and newly appointed pastors will succeed.

The Ministry of Helps - Rev. Lawrence C. Spencer 2017-02-09

Have you ever had that sinking feeling that you were missing out on something very valuable in your ministry but just couldnt put your finger on it? Well, these resources for adventures in service to God for the church are valuable assets to those seeking a dynamic experience in Gods Kingdom work. To invest yourself in Larry Spencers Ministry of Helps Manual and Workbook can enhance your ministry and greatly format your service with usable hands on tools that complete your tool chest. Bring these practical things home and put them to work. Great results have already been seen from individuals who respect Gods Word and value what it can bring to the Board room as well as to the church service. You will not be sorry you invested in this training for you and your ministry team. Rev. Lloyd Tremain, Paradise Community Church of the Nazarene A thorough, practical and much needed Biblically sound treatment. Wish it had been available 20 years ago when I could have use it to a great positive effect Dan Wilderman, Retired Assemblies of God Pastor the order and practical instruction presented will benefit all organizational levels of any Christian Church today. John Steffensen, Radio Host, Christ Today KKXX Radio Chico CA Hopefully this manual will lay the groundwork for pastors and churches to spread the burden and get others involved in the work of the ministry. I once had a pastor that was often unprepared for a service because he was busy helping a parishioner with some needed chore, or church maintenance, or the myriad other duties needed to keep a church going. The result was that the church stayed the same size. Some leave; others enter. But no growth was apparent despite the considerable preaching talents of the pastor. God is apparently making sure he has only the amount of people that he can handle. We learn that the ancient church had some of the same challenges we face today. Acts 6:14 says, Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a complaint against the Hebrews by the Hellenists, because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. Then the twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, It is not desirable that we should leave the word of God and serve tables. (Read this as doing manual labor.) Therefore, brethren, seek out from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business; (the manual labor) but we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word. It was even bringing strife to the local body. What did they do? And what was the result? The first thing the apostles did was pick out people they knew to be wise and that had had received the baptism of the Holy Spirit and appointed them to do practical ministerial duties (the manual labor). This freed up the apostles so they could minister the Word of God. Wow, Gods way is so simple, and our grandiose plans just waste time and get nothing done. Pastors need to learn from the apostles and appoint over this business so the pastors has more time to do the spiritual work that promotes Gods church. This manual gives a road map for accomplishing the goal of choosing and training people and tips for managing them.

Management Training Manual for Pastors and Church Workers - A. A. JONES 2017-09-11

Your church workers are your winning team; you win or lose based on how you choose, manage, train or treat them. There is nothing worse in Church work than untrained, poor, ignorant church workers, because they will misrepresent what you stand for. As a pastor your success in ministry depends on your workers. You can't have Church growth or any meaningful progress without the intelligences, faithfulness, dedication, competences and financial contribution of your Church workers. No one succeeds alone; where there are no trained workers your vision will perish, show me a church worker and I can tell you who the pastor is!

Healing Our Congregation's History - Joseph L. Lynch 2014-07-27

This is a training manual for pastors of congregations that are stuck in their history. This manual provides both rationale and a Bible study the pastor can use to lead the congregation through the process of healing from its history. This training manual also discusses moral injury, both individual and corporate. Moral injury can occur when an individual does something against his or her moral code or fails to do something that is in line with his or her moral code. Moral injury can also occur when a member of the congregation experiences the moral failure of a leader of the congregation. Corporate moral injury can occur when a number of members of the congregation experience the moral injury from the same moral failure at around the same time. The best recovery method from moral injury is when a benevolent moral authority leads the morally injured person through a process of forgiveness (particularly self-forgiveness) to a disciplined lifestyle. For the local congregation, the benevolent moral authority is the pastor. This book is written for the pastor, or the leader of the local congregation.

PULSE OF CHRIST - Nathan Brewer 2016-11-02

In Ephesians 4:7-11, Jesus gave five specific spiritual gifts for the equipping and building up of the church to display his fullness in the world, yet only two are primarily used today- pastors and teachers. It's fair to say that this is an insufficient representation of Christ. What would the potential be of the missing sixty percent- apostles, prophets and evangelists- being activated as well? Could it be that every believer has latent potential in these five areas? Following Jesus' model of learning by doing- not passive information transfer- this practical training manual in the five fold ministry of Christ will be energizing. It will infuse new life into your Christianity as the pulse of Christ pumps through your spiritual veins. These practical exercises will stimulate atrophying muscles to spiritual growth. More importantly, it will glorify Jesus as his whole body is activated. In this fivefold training manual, you will find twenty-five practical exercises in five areas, such as: - How to start a new ministry and multiply it - (apostle) - How to form an encouraging, strengthening or comforting word - (prophet) - How to start spiritual conversations (hint: It's not what you think) - (evangelist) - How to create an atmosphere of community and care - (shepherd) - How to read and dissect the Bible yourself and teach others - (teacher) These exercises are designed to be simple, reproducible, and cross-cultural for any Christian who wants to go deeper. They can be used to equip individuals, youth groups, adult small groups, missions teams, whole churches or in ministry schools. Discover for yourself the powerful fivefold ministry prototype Jesus designed for the church, and be amazed as he reveals to you your part.

Advanced Men's Ministry Training - Keith Burkhart 2018-01-21

Contemporary male culture is broken. Every pastor and church leader knows it. They deal with the fallout every single day, but few know what to do about it. Although ministry and discipleship resources abound, few offer a comprehensive strategy for addressing the problem that works in all ministry environments. The Advanced Men's Ministry Training (AMMT) was developed to supply what's been lacking to this point, a practical, one-size-fits-all guide for building an effective men's ministry from the ground up. Pastors and men's ministry leaders will find this resource useful both in the building and the maintenance of your men's ministry as your church strives to reach lost men with the Gospel, disciple them, train them up, and send them out to advance the Kingdom of God. This book will serve as an invaluable roadmap as you navigate the ministry road ahead.

Are You An Armorbearer Or A Cupbearer? - Shaolin Mb Abrams Sr 2020-02-14

Since each ministry and pastor is different, it is essential to provide Armor bearer/Adjutant training because Armorbearers/Adjutants must be trained so they can meet their leader's expectations and how he/she wants that ministry to operate. This training was designed to help understand whether or not you have what it takes to be an Armorbearer/Adjutant; but also, this class is for pastors and ministry leaders who are served by volunteer Armorbearers/Adjutants, and ministry assistants. After being in the ministry for many years, I saw the need to help other Armorbearers/Adjutants to have the dignity that they now were to walk in as well. It is my passion to teach those who lead and those being led; "Excellence in servant hood."

Preparing the Pastors We Need - George Mason 2012

Amid the widespread discussion about 'the future of the church,' an important point is sometimes overlooked: tomorrow's church will depend to a great extent on the new pastors of today who will serve and guide our churches in the years ahead. George Mason's Preparing the Pastors We Need: Reclaiming the Congregation's Role in Training Clergy makes a timely intervention, asking us to redefine pastoral leadership by analyzing how, in fact, pastors are made in the first place. The book highlights an exciting development in the training of pastors: pastoral residency programs and mentoring. Mason demonstrates that these programs work best when the congregations themselves, not just leadership or staff, are an active participant in the training. In this way, churches begin to reclaim their rightful role in the formation of the ministers that will serve them. And, at the same time, they become healthier and more effective churches. Mason gives us the analogy of physician training. Medical school produces graduates with extensive knowledge of the body, but a practicing doctor will require several more years of internship and residency. Similarly, our seminaries and divinity schools produce men and women with good biblical knowledge, but they might not prepare a graduate for the task of helping a bereaved parishioner cope with the sudden loss of a loved one. Moreover, such areas as finances, budgets, personnel management, and vocational identity are also not well suited to seminary study. Mason shows that congregation-based mentoring and residency are excellent ways to bridge this gap.

A Minister's Manual for Spiritual Warfare - Mark A. Quay 2015-12-17

A Minister's Manual for Spiritual Warfare is written to assist pastors and other ministers help their parishioners find freedom from demonic oppression. It is based upon years of experience and research and was written in consultation with orthodox, highly credentialed theologians, biblical scholars, clinicians, and attorneys. It is written from an evangelical Anglican perspective, but it will also be useful for other traditions. The manual describes various kinds of demonic attacks and discusses the reasons to involve medical and mental health professionals. Providing practical guidance for the deliverance ministry, it includes diagnostic procedures, insight into the makeup and training of a ministry team, the appropriate use of liturgies, pastoral care for victims and deliverance ministers, and legal considerations. The book devotes special attention to exorcisms, emphasizing the importance of a teamwork approach and the necessity of thorough preparedness, including an awareness of different strategies which demons may use to thwart exorcists. Rounding out the manual is a series of accessible, biblical, step-by-step instructions to assist ministers in helping others find freedom in Christ from demonic attacks. A Minister's Manual for Spiritual Warfare is a must-have for any Christian minister involved in deliverance ministry.

The Pastor's Book - R. Kent Hughes 2015-10-14

Pastors are tasked with the incredibly demanding job of caring for the spiritual, emotional, and, at times, physical needs of their people. While seminary is helpful preparation for many of the challenges pastors face, there's far more to pastoral ministry than what can be covered in the classroom. Designed as a reference guide for nearly every situation a pastor will face, this comprehensive book by seasoned pastors Kent Hughes and Doug O'Donnell is packed full of biblical wisdom and practical guidance related to the reality of pastoral ministry in the trenches. From officiating weddings to conducting funerals to visiting the sick, this book will equip pastors and church leaders with the knowledge they need to effectively minister to their flocks, both within the walls of the church and beyond.

Ministers-Workers Training Manual - Godsword Onu 2015-01-10

The ministers and church-workers should be trained well so that they can perform well, and do God's Assignments for them faithfully and satisfactorily. Many are in the ministry today without adequate training, and they have either messed things up or performed, by far, below God's Expectation from them. A minister is not supposed to be a novice, and he is to hold the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. The Word says, "If you instruct the brethren in these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished in the Words of Faith and of the Good Doctrine which you have carefully followed" (1 Tim. 4:6).

Book of Proverbs - Vernon Sessoms, Jr. 2020-05-10

The book of Proverbs teaches practical wisdom to everyone who desires to gain a greater understanding of everyday life situations through observation and practical application. The goal of this book is to write a training manual from the book of Proverbs geared towards African American men between the ages of 20-40 years old. The purpose of the book is to design a Christian discipleship curriculum which contains thirty-one chapters. Each chapter will include a least one lesson, but it could be more. It all depends on how many different topics discussed in each section. I chose the book of Proverbs because the writer deals with so many issues that are relevant to young African-American (Hebrew) Christian men. This training manual will be consistent with the core values of my ministry Every Man Pastors His Own House. I believe that every Hebrew Christian man is responsible for pastoring his wife and his children. The pastor's job is to properly disciple each man (with the help of other Godly men) enabling them to gain the tools needed to pastor their families. This training manual will give them practical ways of being able to accomplish this enormous task of pastoring their families in the United States of America where men are sexually perverted, feminized (skinny jeans), women are taught to be masculine, and children are brainwashed to believe that homosexuality is right for American values. This training manual can be used by any pastor or layperson who desires to disciple African-American men enabling them to be re-established as head of their homes and leaders in the Christian Church strengthening the African-American family in Christ Jesus.

Called to Equip - Palmer Becker 1993

Palmer Becker helps pastors organize their ministry and multiply their effectiveness. In this model, a minister becomes pastor to the pastors, offering care and support to the group leaders, who in turn care for and support others. A companion manual, Called to Care, specifically addresses group leaders, challenging and training them to lead small groups.

It is also very relevant to anyone who has a pastoral aspect to their ministry, for example: Small group leaders Team leaders who have a pastoral remit for people on their teams Any Christian who naturally cares for others, without having an 'official' ministry role in a local church. This training can be used for personal or group study. Deliverance and Healing - Mike Connell 2013-03-14

* Manual only (transcripts not included) * Full version available from here: <http://createspace.com/4101124> Mike's complete notes on Deliverance & Healing. Contents include: 1. Apostolic anointing and ministry 2. How demons enter and oppress people 3. Curses and how to deal with them 4. Breaking bondages 5. Casting out spirits 6. Healing the wounded heart 7. Ungodly beliefs 8. Ministering to people 9. House cleansing Appendix: Discerning of spirits Audio Transcripts: (not included - see above) Apostolic Anointing and Ministry (1 of 5) The apostolic anointing is a commissioning, sending, empowerment to impact lives for the kingdom of God. Jesus first sent 12, then 70, and finally all believers. We're all sent by God, we all have a sphere of influence, and god wants us to be used in this ministry - not only of sharing the gospel, but of healing the sick, and delivering people from evil spirits. Evil Spirits and how they Operate (2 of 5) Examples of Jesus' ministry of deliverance, how He worked, how He operated, and then some of Jesus' teaching as to what evil spirits are and how they operate. How spirits get into people's lives and the ways they operate, leading into a closer examination of the scriptures around deliverance, and what they reveal about demons, and the spirit world. Some basics of the deliverance ministry, leading into a practice exercise (activation). Gateways for Demonic Spirits (3 of 5) Demons need a 'legal doorway' to enter a persons life. In this session, a check-list of 9 common doorways are explained; and what kinds of things would happen inside a person, as a result of demonic bondage. Curses and How to Deal with Them (4 of 5) For people who have a spiritual world view, blessing and cursing are a great reality. Blessing means there's a flow of spiritual power that brings favour around my life; cursing means there is a flow of spiritual power that obstructs and frustrates and sets me back continually. This session will help you identify when a curse is operating, and how to go about addressing it. This includes a range of heart issues that give legal rights to demons. Jesus came to set us free! Casting out of Spirits (5 of 5) Simple dynamics of how to lead someone through deliverance, including dealing with some issues of the heart where demons are attached. Beautiful examples of healing encounters.
