Innovating for The Circular Economy -

Rachna Arora 2023-03-01

Systemic change is required to move to a circular economy (CE) model which can meet the demands of a growing population in a manner that is decoupled from resource use and waste generation. This book takes a deep dive into the innovation aspect of the circular economy (CE), with a specific focus on India as a geography, where the transformation to a circular economy is underway. How a developing country like India is tackling the complexities of the transformation and creating innovative solutions is showcased in this book through many practical examples and inspirational case studies. The book lays out the foundations for mainstreaming resource efficiency (RE)/CE in India, and covers innovation led by businesses and start-ups, along with the innovative policies, financing, and collaborative models required to spur and accelerate circular economy approaches, while also providing linkages to the international context. Features: Provides insight into the role of innovation in the circular economy transition; Helps to develop and facilitate adoption of resource-efficiency policy and strategy with particular focus on key resource sectors and waste streams; Treats the circular economy as a holistic approach across the entire lifecycle, and places emphasis on upstream interventions and systems change; Examines the current context of COVID-19 and its impact on circular economy models and practices; Touches upon how the EU-based approach was adapted and contextualised significantly to work in the unique Indian landscape. This book is aimed at students, researchers, and professionals engaged in the domains of circular economy, sustainability, business innovation, environmental studies, natural resources management, and environmental and resource conservation policy.

You Can Beat Cancer - Rachna Chhachhi
2020-02-04

Expert Advice on Preventing and Reversing Cancer Foreword by SUBHASH CHANDRA Preface by HARSH MARIWALA According to WHO, the number of global cancer deaths is projected to increase by 45 percent, where over two-thirds of the deaths occur in low- and middle-income countries. This makes India, and you, vulnerable. There is already someone you know who has cancer. So, you know that the threat is real and near. But now there is a way out. Certified cancer nutrition coach Rachna Chhachhi shows you how to train your cells to respond to physical and emotional nurturing to fight cancer. In this book, you will learn all about preventing the world's most feared disease with the help of holistic nutrition. You can also combine it with Western medicine, if you are already under treatment. Quoting the cases of her many clients across 27 countries who have defeated the odds after their diagnoses, and with the support of global cancer research, Chhachhi illustrates how to prevent, manage or reverse cancer for yourself. IN YOU CAN BEAT CANCER, SHE DISCUSSES:

- What causes cancer
- How not to fear the diagnosis
- The necessity of practicing meditation, pranayama & gratitude
- Ways to avoid cancer-triggering habits
- The impact of natural immunotherapy
- How epigenetics can change your genes' response towards cancer cells
- More than 100 unique anticancer recipes

RACHNA CHHACHHI is a certified cancer nutrition coach and holds a PhD in holistic nutrition. She is best-known for her work with cancer and autoimmune patients. She has been writing on health for 20 years for mainstream Indian newspapers and magazines and has been extensively interviewed in media. "Rachna's book is the need of the hour today to protect ourselves." My Mother Is Weird - Rachna Gilmore 2012-07-03

A hilarious look at a child's view of a mother's bad day. Originally published in 1989 by Ragweed Press, this book is considered to be a P.E.I. classic. This unique view of mother's "bad day" through the observant eyes of a child is a weird and wonderful story for parents and children. My mother is so weird. Some mornings, when she wakes up, she has horns on her head and long pointy teeth and claws. She speaks in a voice like a jackhammer. But after her morning coffee, Mom's horns disappear, and her teeth and claws shrink back to normal. She speaks in a soft, smooth voice. But, one morning...we ran out of coffee...

children. It is humbling to learn and relearn concepts. The author indeed acknowledges that parenting is a continuous process and does not require perfection. Parenting requires shared wisdom, compassion, and understanding between parents, their children, and the world. You will be introduced to character development, conflict management, the power of uttering positivity, trusting your instincts, communication, and listening to your children attentively.

Bipin - Rachna Bisht Rawat 2023-08-08

On the morning of 8 December 2021, India's Chief of Defence Staff, General Bipin Rawat, and his wife, Madhulika, said goodbye to their daughter, Tarini, and dogs, and left their Delhi home to board a flight for Sulur in Tamil Nadu. Around 11.48 a.m., they boarded an Mi-17 V5 helicopter that took off from Sulur to Wellington, where Gen. Rawat was to deliver a lecture at the Defence Services Staff College. Just a few minutes away from its destination, the chopper crashed, and all fourteen passengers onboard eventually perished. It was a sudden and shocking end to the life of a man who had risen like a meteor in the defence forces. Bipin: The Man behind the Uniform is the story of the NDA cadet who was relegated in the third term for not being able to do a mandatory jump into the swimming pool; of the young Second Lieutenant who was tricked into losing his ID card at the Amritsar railway station by a 5/11 Gorkha Rifles officer posing as his sahayak; of the Major with a leg in plaster who was carried up to his company post on the Pakistan border because he insisted on joining his men for Dusshera celebrations under direct enemy observation; of the Army Chief who decided India would retaliate immediately and openly to every act of cross-border terrorism; of the Chief of Defence Staff who was happiest dancing the jhamre with his Gorkha troops. Written by bestselling author Rachna Bisht Rawat and featuring in-depth interviews with Bipin Rawat's friends, family members and comrades, this book is a befitting tribute to one of India's greatest and most controversial Generals.

Contemporary Weaving in Mixed Media - Rachna Garodia 2022-09-01

This glorious book is a modern guide to weaving, an ancient craft that is reaching new heights of popularity, from acclaimed contemporary weaver and textile artist Rachna Garodia. It contains a wealth of practical advice and tons of inspiration for every aspect of this endlessly adaptable craft, from gathering materials to making and exhibiting ambitious woven masterpieces, bringing in a wide selection of mixed media. Meditative and calming, a session at the loom is a great way to relax, and create something beautiful in the process. And you don't need expensive equipment: you can start your weaving journey on a small wooden frame or even a piece of cardboard, and it's now easy to book time on larger looms outside the home. The book includes: Choosing a loom, from the simplest small frames to sophisticated table and floor looms. Design and planning: taking inspiration from the natural world, sketching, photographing, making moodboards and exploring colour. Gathering materials: from natural straw, grass, flowers, feathers, bark and seedpods to more traditional yarns and threads and even paper and photographs. Personalising your work by incorporating well-loved old fabrics and precious sentimental items. Unusual techniques: weaving with photographs or directly onto handmade paper, three-dimensional sculptural weaving, non-loom techniques such as looping and netting. Gorgeously illustrated with work from the author and other artists from around the world, this book is an engaging and beautiful introduction to weaving for established textile artists or those coming to the craft for the first time.
